From Janet's Perspective

Gathering together at camp meeting, for potluck was a good time for all of us. I'm sure that everyone received a special blessing for the day. I know I did. As usual, we had a nice lunch, after church services, and it was fun being with old acquaintances. I brought my sister, who had met a friend she hadn't seen in years. It was such a nice time for them to get together, and to play catch-up on years past. After lunch, my sister and I, and her friend, went for a walk around the grounds. It was hot in the sun, and after awhile of walking, we spotted the front entrance tent, and asked the gentleman there if we could take refuge under the tent with him. He said yes, and invited us to sit down. As it turned out, he was the Pastor from Baltimore First Church. What a wonderful person he is. We really enjoyed talking with him, asking him many questions we had about the Bible, and what it says. The Pastor answered each and every question we had with graciousness, but with clarity, until we understood. We felt very fortunate to have met him that day. He really helped us to understand the many unanswered questions we had. We even had some other people stop by and join in our on conversations. Wasn't that neat, or do you think it was God's plan? Who knows? Either way, it made a beautiful day, even more beautiful. I feel I received a "double" blessing that day. I didn't think I would be there as long as I was, but I was having such a good time, I thought, "why not?"

◆ Artists And Writers

CQ: A Devotional Bible-Study Guide for Young Adults is seeking people to coordinate lessons on particular themes and to create artwork for the lesson book. While we try to make sure that most of our writers are between the ages of 18-35, we do have some that are "older." We always say that CQ is written by young adults and their friends. For more information and guidelines, email Lyndelle Chiomenti: ChiomentiL@gc.adventist.org
