The morning service featured Barry Black, who is the Chaplain of the United States Senate. Chaplain Black spoke about learning to worship God like the beings in heaven worship Him. After the service we went to Cynthia Malcolm's [alumnus] house for potluck. The potluck was well attended. We enjoyed a delicious meal, with plenty to eat. We wish to thank Cynthia and her husband for their hospitality. In the afternoon we enjoyed a musical program featuring the Wedgwood Trio. At the Camp Meeting there was a model of the Sanctuary that the Children of Israel set up in the wilderness. The staff at the Sanctuary took groups through the building and gave lectures about the significance of the Sanctuary and its services. The lecturers were well informed and provided details not generally known about the services. The day was an enjoyable experience. We were blessed by the excellent speakers and music and by the time spent together with other singles.
