About twenty people enjoyed an evening of food, a lecture by Thomas Heath, and games lead by Annabelle Randall. We had several new people attend: some people came from New Jersey, one from Delaware, and three from Atholton Church in Columbia, Maryland. Our next event will be a film night at the Chesapeake Conference Office on Saturday night, March 13, at 6:30 pm. I hope to see you there! Please note that the Film Night will be on March 13, not March 21. During the weekend of April 23-25, 2010, we will have our Spring Retreat. Please find the retreat brochure enclosed. Bio: Jan Yakush has been an academy Bible teacher, chaplain and speaker for a lot of years. She has traveled the country sharing with all kinds of congregations! Currently, she is managing the food department at the Potomac ABC and having a wonderful time! She also plays guitar and is currently restoring a very old house! To subscribe to newsletter, go to: www.ccosda.org. Singles Potluck at Potomac Camp Meeting.

We have tentative plans for a potluck lunch at the Potomac Camp Meeting in June, 2010. Please look for further details later.

Adventist Contact:

While Adventist Singles Ministries is not a dating club but a ministry, we are a resource offering information to singles. Many singles have limited contact with people who might be potential dates and eventually marriage partners.

I was told by the leader of Adventist Contact that they are looking for more people to participate. The more people that participate, the better the chances people have of finding the right person.

For information on Adventist Contact go to the website: www.adventistcontact.com
