Aetna, in Hagerstown MD. We had about 60 people attend. The weather was really nice, with warm sunshine and the changing leaves. If you missed the retreat, you missed a good weekend. There will be another retreat in the spring: April 24-26. We had three seminars on relationships by Anne Woodworth (dating, courtship, and marriage), two spiritual talks by Garland Day (the divinity of God and communication) and he showed a film on astronomy, and finally on Sunday, we had financial seminars by Roland Smith and Alonzo Bethea. I wish to thank the speakers: Garland Day, Anne Woodworth, Roland Smith, and Alonzo Bethea for their presentations. Also, a big thank you goes to Sandy Walcott, Jodi Onoffrey, Kerry Gordon, Howard and Shirley Bankes, Annabelle and Forest Randall for all their help in planning the retreat. Thank you too to Brenda Alexis (DC) and Beulah Williams (NJ) for providing special music. We enjoyed their solos and acapella singing. Comments on the retreat included, "I liked everything, the food was delicious, the Saturday night DVD, How Great is God was awesome, keep up the good work." The Talent Program included stories, vocal and piano solos, and a demonstration of wood carvings. The ice cream social and hayride were enjoyed too. One of our presenters said: "the Lord indeed did work in an incredible way to bring everything throughout the program (music, prayer, all speakers) into consistency and relevancy for the attendees. The same themes were resonating throughout the weekend. So many people mentioned how touched their hearts were with the messages. I praise God for His faithfulness when we work on His behalf. He does indeed equip us for the task, and magnifies our efforts to complete His purposes."
