Adventists on the Move 2. Corn Roast Report 3. Fall Retreat 4. Cruise 	Hello Everyone: About 25 singles enjoyed the corn roast, eating corn, potatoes, hot dogs, tomatoes and watermelon. Special thanks to Shirley Bankes for the hard work that she did. Helen Devine also helped. We had several people who had not come to our events before. After eating, some people enjoyed playing ping pong, while others played table games. I had been fearful that the turnout would be low because of the weather. We had heavy rain in the morning on Sunday, but after the rain, the weather cleared and it was quite nice for the rest of the day. On another note, remember the Fall Retreat, October 7-9, 2011. We have two guest speakers from Michigan .. They are going to speak on issues that concern single people. Also, their daughter will be there to do signing in American Sign Language. Please plan on participating in a Talent Show on the Saturday night of the retreat. Encourage any singles that you know to come also. I have reduced the fees for the retreat, which I hope will enable more people to attend. Also, I have sent e-mail messages to some of the Conferences in states surrounding the Chesapeake Conference, and I am hoping that singles from those states will come. Fred Thomas
